

The Power of Extraordinary Listening

A short course in listening
A quantum leap in understanding

Simple Techniques, Life Changing Effects

Have you ever wished

- you could have expressed yourself better
- prevented a relationship from falling apart
- lived more harmoniously with your family
- said the right thing in a job interview
- fully understood a client, friend or colleague

Richard Moon invites you to a short transformative workshop that teaches you the power of extraordinary listening.

Ever met someone who really understands you? Felt the joy of having been truly heard?

Learn the skills so that YOU become that someone.

This short course is for everyone: parents, teachers, professionals, leaders, employees, health workers, councilors, community volunteers; anyone who would like to develop a greater understanding of themselves and their reactivity to others when communicating.

By improving our listening we will improve our relationships, inspire creativity, become more effective in our work, create better solutions and live more harmoniously with our friends and family.

About Richard Moon

Richard Moon is founder of Extraordinary Listening. He has coached executives in multi-national companies, conducted peace talks in Bosnia and Cyprus, and helped raise millions of dollars for the education of youths recovering from war in their countries. He wants to share his skills with all who are interested in enhancing their lives by improving their ability to relate better to the people around them.
